Attachment 1 to Peter P. Buttigieg OGE 278

On June 15, 2017, Mayor Peter Buttigieg agreed to a $75,000 advance against royalties under an agreement between Liveright Publishing Corporation, a wholly owned subsidiary of W. W. Norton & Company, Inc., for a memoir then tentatively entitled Letters from Flyover Country, eventually published as Shortest Way Home. Mayor Buttigieg received the last advance payment for Shortest Way Home in 2019. Royalties for the book are: 10% of the publisher's catalog retail price for the first 5,000 hardcover book sales; 12.5% of the publisher's catalog retail price on the next 5,000 hardcover book sales; 15% of the publisher's catalog retail price on all hardcover book sales thereafter; 7.5% of the publisher's catalog retail price on all paperback book sales, and other standard royalties. Shortest Way Home was published on February 12, 2019.

Mayor Buttigieg also has an agreement with Recorded Books, Inc., for an audio version of Shortest Way Home. During the reporting period, Mayor Buttigieg received a $3000 narration fee from Recorded Books Inc. No royalties or advance against royalties were received during the reporting period.
